Dear Colleague,

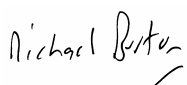

What does the local government bill means for services? Find out by subscribing to The MJ - with a whopping 45% discount for APSE members

The MJ is the leading news weekly for local government managers and members. The MJ is at the heart of Whitehall, each week delivering the inside story about issues of direct concern to all tiers of local government. The MJ will help you address the key questions arising from the local government bill such as:

- Where now for Best Value?
- Meeting the targets for waste
- Challenges for procurement and efficiency
- What next for enhanced two tiers
- Contract issues and shared services

At a time of such change it is more important than ever that you keep abreast of developments. Reading The MJ each week will ensure you keep your finger on the pulse of local government.

Yours sincerely,

Michael Burton, Editor, The MJ
