

Delivered online via

Housing, Homelessness and Community Support

FREE

for Welsh councils and housing associations

Friday 2 February

Online Meeting, 10:00 - 12:30

Programme / Booking

About the Meeting

An opportunity to look at the impact of social housing provision, homelessness, asylum seeker support and the cost of living crisis in a Welsh context.

A FREE event for Welsh councils and housing associations, join us online and learn how local authorities and partner organisations are finding solutions to housing and homelessness challenges.

10:00 Session One

The Challenge of tackling homelessness on a local and national level across Wales

- Temporary and Emergency Accommodation
- Private Rented Sector
- More Homes

CLlr Andrea Lewis, Deputy Leader, Swansea Council and APSE Wales Chair

Audience question and answer session

Housing Matters

- The challenging financial circumstances facing homelessness and housing support providers, and its impact on citizens;
- Housing Matters campaign
- How we might collaborate to protect these vital services

Clarissa Corbisiero, Director of External Affairs / Deputy Chief Executive, Community Housing Cymru

Audience question and answer session

11:10 Comfort Break

11:20 Session Two

Housing emergency in Cardiff

- How did we get here?
- Reducing Incoming Demand
- Increasing accommodation using traditional and innovative solutions

CLlr Lynda Thorne, Cabinet Member Housing and Communities, Cardiff Council

Audience question and answer session

The journey out of homelessness

- Operating 80% of all temporary accommodation projects across Swansea
- Housing First

Phill Stapley, Strategic Operational Lead for Southwest Wales; Mark Winston, Anna Hooper Swansea Area Managers, The Wallich

Audience question and answer session

12:30 Seminar close

>> Click here to reserve your place <<

INVESTORS IN PEOPLE™
We invest in people Gold