Evening Programme

The prestigious performance networks awards are a high-profile occasion where both the best performing authorities and the most improved are awarded for their achievements. There are dedicated awards for most service areas and finalists are selected based on those authorities who have participated in performance networks.

- 19:00 Pre-dinner drinks
- 19:30 Performance networks dinner
- 21:30 Performance networks awards

APSE is proud to once again be supporting Parkinson's UK as our event charity this year and hopes to add to the many thousands raised at our awards in recent years for this vital charity.

Friday 6 December

10:00 What's happened and what's next for local government finances?

The IFS's head of devolved and local government finance will survey the local government finance landscape and outlook following the October Budget and Spending Review. In particular he will:

- Recap recent local government financial trends, highlighting how recent challenges have been driven by surging costs rather than funding cuts
- Explore the future financial outlook, emphasising the key role council tax is likely to play going forwards
- Discuss some ideas for addressing ongoing financial challenges, and the prospects for local government financial reform

David Phillips, Associate Director, Institute of Fiscal Studies

10:30 Panel discussion

Post-election: what's the direction for local government front-line services?

Chair Mo Baines, Chief Executive, APSE

- Climate change, energy and net zero - Patrick Allcorn, Head of Local Net Zero Delivery and Demonstration, DESNZ
- Workforce issues – President of the PPMA, Pam Parkes
- Local government finance – David Phillips, Associate Director, Institute of Fiscal Studies
- Digitalisation and technology - David Ogden, Engagement Director, SOCITM
- Managing demand and productivity – Mike Cockburn, Assistant Director – Climate Emergency & Environment, Wirral Council
- Impact on culture and leisure – Iain Varah, Chief Executive, Vision Redbridge Culture and Leisure
